

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1) All models remain property of Eldritch Games.
- 2) Work not of satisfactory condition will have to be sold at a reduced price, the reduction is shared with the painter, on a like for like basis, so if we have to reduce the price by 10% the commission will be reduced by 10%
- 3) No cash alternative will be offered
- 4) Models shall be returned upon request; otherwise they will be billed for.
- 5) Your commission tier will be decided by us and only us.
- 7) ELDRITCH GAMES decision is final.

The process:

We give you a model to paint (you will be able to select which ranges your able to paint), for first time painters you will have to purchase your first model then claim it back once we receive it.

You paint the model (usually in the colours of your choice and in your own style).

You return the model, if you need to post the item postal charges come form your pocket as we have had to pay to send you the item, so everything is even.

If you paid for the item the cost will be refunded at this stage.

We then credit your online account with points of value equal to HALF of your commission rate (explained below). You can spend these points on anything from our website.

We the sell the model through the website and sometimes ebay it, we decide the price to display it at, this will typically be our normal retail price plus a percentage equal to your commission, when we use ebay, the fees for selling the item will come of the final selling price BEFORE we work out any bonus commission, although we pay all fees if it does not reach the bonus amount.

Once sold your online account will be credited with the remaining commission.

So its easy really.
